Case Management Pilot Program (CMPP) Frequently Asked Questions

As of 07/26/2024

What is the Case Management Pilot Program (CMPP)?

The Fiscal Year 2021 Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Appropriations Act provided $5 million for a case management pilot program (CMPP) to provide case management and other services to non-detained, non-U.S. citizens (herein after noncitizens) who are enrolled in U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Alternatives to Detention (ATD) programs, in geographic locations served by the program.

Congress appropriated an additional $15 million for CMPP in Fiscal Year 2022 and $20 million in Fiscal Year 2023, for $40 million in funding for CMPP.

What services are available through CMPP?

CMPP services include case management, mental health services, trafficking screening, legal orientation programs, cultural orientation programs, connection to social services participants identify as a priority, and departure planning and reintegration services for participants returning to their home countries. Services also include notices to participants about court hearings and ICE appointments.

Is there any CMPP service that is more important or prioritized over the others?

No. All core CMPP services must be offered to all participants. Additional services can be offered or provided based on an individualized assessment of the participant's needs, depending on the client's own prioritization.

Can CMPP provide cash assistance to participants?

No. CMPP does not provide direct cash assistance to participants. However, CMPP program funds can be used flexibly to meet individual clients' self-identified needs such as for food or utilities.

Can CMPP funds support direct legal representation for participants?

No. CMPP funding cannot be used for direct legal representation. However, CMPP funds can support robust legal orientation programming, including pro se assistance.

What are the goals of CMPP?

Goals of CMPP include:

- Providing case management and other needed services to eligible noncitizens.
- Promoting CMPP participants' compliance with immigration legal obligations.
- Reporting to Congress about CMPP lessons learned and case management best practices.

What are key elements of CMPP?

- CMPP does not include electronic monitoring.
- CMPP services are voluntary, trauma informed, and culturally and linguistically responsive.
- CMPP services are client led.

Who is eligible to receive CMPP services?

For the third round of funding, eligible noncitizens are noncitizens subject to ICE reporting, including, but not limited to, noncitizens paroled by DHS, issued a bond by DHS, who have been or are on an Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) alternative to detention program, or who have been served with a Notice to Appear (NTA) by DHS.

Can families enroll in CMPP?

Yes. Families can enroll in CMPP if all individuals reside in the same household, have an A number, are known to ICE, and are:

- Parents or legal guardian(s), with their minor children and/or unmarried adult children between the ages of 18-21;
- Primary caretakers of children/unmarried young adults up to age 21, or an individual who is otherwise unable to care for themself; and
- Spouses/domestic partners who are both 18 or older.

Core Services should be offered to all enrolled individuals who are 14 or older.

How is CMPP structured?

A National Board, chaired by the DHS Officer for Civil Rights and Civil Liberties (CRCL), and modeled on the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) Emergency Food and Shelter Program, is responsible for awarding CMPP funds to eligible local governments and/or nonprofits and managing the program.

What organizations serve on the CMPP National Board?

National Board member organizations include: Church World Service; Catholic Charities USA; and the Center for Migration Studies of New York. Church World Service acts as the Board's Secretariat and Fiscal Agent.

What is the role of the CMPP service providers?

CMPP service providers provide case management and other services to eligible participants.

Have CMPP funds been awarded?

On November 30, 2022, the CMPP National Board selected the first two CMPP sites and service providers for the first tranche of CMPP funds. In November 2023, 4 additional providers were selected for the implementation of CMPP.

On July 8, 2024, the CMPP National Board released a new solicitation for the third tranche of CMPP funds.

Where are the current CMPP sites?

The initial sites were New York City and Houston, with lead providers being the International Rescue Committee in New York and BakerRipley in Houston. Additional providers include LSSNCA in Washington D.C., Global Refuge in Baltimore, and LA County in Los Angeles.

Where can I find the CMPP National Board's solicitation for CMPP service providers?

The current solicitation from the CMPP National Board for CMPP service providers is available at www.CMPP.org.

Applications are due August 8, 2024, by 11:59 pm EST. Late applications will not be considered.
